

IMPERIAL COLLEGE LONDON

ORDINANCE A11

SENIOR MANAGEMENT BOARD

The University Management Board (UMB) is the College's senior management committee and its role is to advise and assist the President in discharging the duties delegated to them by the Council. It considers strategic, financial, policy, governance, risk and operational issues of significance to the organisation as well as major projects and initiatives, prioritisation of resources and regulatory matters. It oversees the development and delivery of the College's purpose, long term sustainability and academic mission. The operations, terms of reference and membership of the UMB are as defined by the President who acts as Chair of the UMB, supported by Provost as Deputy Chair.
