

IMPERIAL COLLEGE LONDON

ORDINANCE D3

OFFICERS OF THE COLLEGE

1. In accordance with Statute 8, the President, the Provost, the Chief Financial Officer, the Clerk to the Council and the College Secretary are ex officio officers of the College.

2. In accordance with Statute 8(6), the President may recommend to the Council any other senior academic or non-academic member of staff of the College to be designated as an Officer of the College (hereinafter called a "College Officer"). Such recommendations would normally include the Vice Presidents, the Vice Provosts, and the Directors of the Support Services, including but not limited to estates, finance, human resources and information and communication technologies, the Director of Strategic Planning, the Academic Registrar and the Deans of the Faculties and of the Imperial College Business School.

3. Any person designated as a College Officer by the Council shall only retain that title for so long as they hold the appointment in which they were initially so designated or until the Council withdraws the designation.

4. Except in so far as a person is an ex officio member of the Court, or a member of the Council in accordance with Statute 3(1)(a), persons designated College Officers may not be nominated for election to the Court or the Council.
