

13 November 2008

COLLEGE NOTICE

PRO RECTOR (COMMERCIAL DEVELOPMENT)

Mr Edward Astle has been appointed Pro Rector (Commercial Development) with effect from 1 December 2008. His prime task will be to initiate, develop and deliver commercially exploitable collaborations nationally and internationally. An Oxford graduate and INSEAD MBA, Edward has been a director of National Grid for the past 7 years, combining a divisional role with corporate business development. His previous career included two other FTSE 100 boards, Cable and Wireless and BICC, and the chairmanship of two technology start ups and one successful IPO. He has extensive international experience in US, Europe and Asia.

Rodney Eastwood
College Secretary