

12 July 2010

COLLEGE NOTICE

CHANGES TO RESPONSIBILITIES FOR HEALTH, SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT MANAGEMENT

The following changes to responsibilities will come into effect on 1 August 2010 following the retirement of Mr Chris Gosling, Director of Health, Safety and Environment Management, after nine years of service to the College.

Dr Rodney Eastwood, College Secretary, will be responsible for the Safety Department and risk management and disaster recovery activities.

Mrs Louise Lindsay, Director of Human Resources, will be responsible for the Occupational Health Service.

Mr Nick Roalfe, Director of Facilities Management, will be responsible for environmental sustainability activities.

Mr Andrew Murphy, Director of Finance, will be responsible for the financial overview of pensions provision and Mrs Lindsay will maintain responsibility for the operational running of the Pensions Office. Mr Gosling will continue as Trustee for the SAUL and FPS Pension Schemes.

To ensure continuity in the College's evolving work to support staff and students with disabilities, Mr Gosling will remain as Chair of the Disability Action Committee.

Rodney Eastwood
College Secretary