COLLEGE NOTICE

DIRECTOR OF THE INSTITUTE FOR SECURITY SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

Professor Chris Hankin, Professor in Computing Science, has accepted appointment as the Director of the Institute for Security Science and Technology from 1 January 2010. Professor Hankin will hold this position while Sir Keith O'Nions, the previous Director of the Institute, serves as Acting Rector of the College.

Professor Hankin joined the College as a lecturer in Computing in 1984 and was promoted to Professor in Computing Science in 1995. He is a theoretical computer scientist and he has focussed on the security of computer programs and systems over the last ten years. He has previously been Dean of City and Guilds College (2000-2003), Pro Rector for Research (2004-2006) and Deputy Principal of the Faculty of Engineering (2006-2008).
