COLLEGE NOTICE

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER AND SUPPORT SERVICES DIVISIONS

The following changes to responsibilities will come into effect from 1 January 2011 on an interim basis following the departure of Dr Martin Knight, Chief Operating Officer, who leaves the College on 31 December 2010 after 18 years of service to Imperial. Dr Knight has served as a member and Honorary Treasurer of the College's Council, and as Chief Financial Officer and Chief Operating Officer of the College. He remains the Chairman of Imperial Innovations plc.

Mr Andrew Murphy, Director of Finance, has accepted appointment as Acting Chief Financial Officer, reporting to the Rector. He will be responsible for the College's finances at a strategic level and will be a member of the Management Board.

Professor Stephen Richardson, Deputy Rector, will assume responsibility for the following Support Services Divisions:

- Capital Projects and Planning (formerly Building Projects)
- Commercial Services
- Facilities and Property Management
- Human Resources
- ICT
- Reactor Centre

Professor Stephen Richardson, Deputy Rector, will also assume responsibility for liaison with the College Fund and will retain his responsibility for the Research Office.

In line with good governance practice, the Council will review the structure and accountability for the areas currently managed by the Chief Operating Officer.

Rodney Eastwood
College Secretary
