

24 February 2017

COLLEGE NOTICE

DIRECTOR OF STUDENT SERVICES

---

Ms Hannah Bannister has accepted appointment as Director of Student Services from 15 May 2017.

Reporting to the Vice-Provost (Education), Hannah will play a leading role in establishing a single, strategic direction for student services at Imperial, working in partnership with key colleagues and students to enable all of the College's student services to work together to enhance and enrich the student experience. She will have direct responsibility for the Careers Service, the Hall Wardens, the Counselling Service, and the Disability Advisory Service, as well as oversight of the Chaplaincy.

Hannah joins the College from LSE where, as Head of Student Services, she has led teams within the Student Wellbeing Service and the Student Services Centre, and more broadly been part of delivering improvements to educational provision and the overall student experience.

John Neilson
College Secretary & Registrar