COLLEGE NOTICE

CHIEF INFORMATION OFFICER

Mr Juan Villamil has accepted appointment as Chief Information Officer. He will join the College in February 2020.

Reporting to the Chief Financial Officer, he will be responsible for all aspects of Imperial's enterprise technology strategy, architecture, design, development, operation and security.

Mr Villamil is currently the Chief Technology Officer at the Department for Work and Pensions, where he led the transformation that saw the Department take back control of their IT estate from legacy outsourced contracts and create a modern technology capability. He previously worked for BT, leading the engineering capability during the creation of BT Sport and BT Vision. Mr Villamil completed his Executive MBA at Imperial College Business School in 2007, and the Major Projects Leadership Academy at the University of Oxford Said Business School in 2018.
