COLLEGE NOTICE

PRESIDENT

Professor Hugh Brady has accepted appointment as President of Imperial College London. Professor Brady will take up the role on 1 August 2022, after Professor Alice Gast's term as President concludes.

Professor Brady has served as Vice-Chancellor and President of the University of Bristol since 2015, following appointments at University College Dublin where he was Professor of Medicine and Healthcare Strategy and President Emeritus. He has served on Ireland's Higher Education Authority, as Chair of the Irish Universities Association and Chair of the Universitas 21 Network of global research universities. Professor Brady is a non-executive director of Kerry Group plc and ICON plc, has served on the Board of the West of England Local Enterprise Partnership (LEP) and is a member of the Western Gateway Partnership Board.

Professor Brady's appointment concludes an international search for Imperial's next President overseen by the Chair of Council, John Allan.
