

Addressing key challenges in energy systems modelling for the 21st century

Professor Adam Hawkes

Possible projects focus on treatment of uncertainty, modelling fit of high VRE high storage systems, rapid energy model creation using LLM and ML techniques, and integrating sustainable and equitable development principles in modelling frameworks.