

Reflection on Feedback

Please read over your second assignment and the feedback that you received and answer the following questions. Please return this form via email to Kate Ippolito k.ippolito@imperial.ac.uk by Mon 24th March 2014.

What aspect of the assignment did you feel went particularly well for you?

What did you find the most challenging thing about writing your assignment?

What was the most important thing that you learnt from the process of writing your assignment?

What questions regarding reading and writing in education do you need addressing to help you make progress?

What do you think you are going to do differently in the way that you approach your next assignment?

What has been particularly useful about the feedback you have received? How could it be made more useful to you?
